

AUCTION DONATION FORM

On October 6 and 7, 2012, the Stickley Museum will host an exciting weekend entitled Celebrating an American Style. This weekend is being presented in conjunction with the exhibition Styling and American Family: The 1910s at Gustav Stickley's Craftsman Farms. It includes a full day conference, Styling an American Family: Tastemaking in the 1910's and Beyond which will consider the roles of key tastemakers, like Gustav Stickley, in establishing tastes in fashion and furnishings. Conference speakers will include Caroline Rennolds Milbank, curator, scholar, and author (Couture: The Great Designers, 1985; New York Fashion: The Evolution of American Style, 1989; The Couture Accessory, 2002; and Resort Fashion, 2009); Rosalie Berberian, independent scholar; Jeffrey Mayer, Associate Professor of Fashion Design and History at Syracuse University's College of Visual and Performing Arts; and Ann Marguerite Tartsinis, Assistant Curator at Bard Graduate Center.

The weekend also will include a black-tie optional fundraising benefit, Celebrating an American Style, to be held at the elegant Mountain Lakes Club. The gala evening will include cocktails, gourmet dinner, live music, and a live and silent auction. David Rago, well-known from Rago Arts and Auction Center and from his frequent appearances on Antiques Roadshow, will lead the live auction.
